Meeting Needs, Changing Lives

Send Relief works with churches and volunteers to meet needs and change lives in communities within the U.S. and around the world.

By offering help and hope to the most vulnerable in collaboration with missionaries, local ministries and churches, your gifts and efforts through Send Relief have a long-term impact.

With Send Relief's help, churches and partners like you, we are able to provide resources and training to be the hands and feet of Jesus to communities in crisis, refugees, human trafficking survivors, those affected by natural disasters and vulnerable children and families.

Ministry Centers

Send Relief ministry centers deliver compassion ministry within local communities while providing mission trips and training opportunities for churches all over the country. The goal of ministry centers is twofold: serve communities well and encourage others to do the same.

All over North America, Send Relief ministry centers actively assess community needs, develop ministry strategies, deliver ministry and provide opportunities for others to go on mission.

Community Snapshot

If you're looking for an experience that is American, Texan and Mexican all in one, Laredo has all that and more.

- It's a perfect blend of culture, language, culinary influences and ambiance only found deep in the heart of South Texas.
- Laredo is the top inland port of entry in the U.S., with more than 14,000 trucks crossing the border daily. It is one of the oldest border crossing points along the U.S.-Mexico border.
- Thousands of Hispanic U.S. citizens live in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, but work and attend school on the Laredo, Texas, side due to the lower cost of living Mexico offers.

Across from Mexico on the Rio Grande, Laredo is poised to become one of the world's most strategic land ports.

- Population: The greater Laredo population (U.S. and Mexico) is about 1.7 million. Laredo is the 11th most populated city in the state of Texas. About 0.3% of the population (both sides of the border) attend an evangelical church on Sunday.
- Laredo racial/ethnic groups are Hispanic (95.5%) followed by (White (3.2%) and Asian (0.5%).
- The average household income in Laredo is $64,705
- Despite good employment numbers, poverty is still a significant issue in Laredo.

- Laredo ranks sixth among the nation with the highest food insecurity rate.
- 40% of residents live below the poverty level — the highest in Texas.
- There's been an increase of migrants (over 100,000 migrants) arriving at the border and crossing over to Laredo.
- In 2020, the City of Laredo received funding to assist in migrant operations; the city has requested further assistance for 2023 because of the increase in refugees. A lack of resources has often left local officials scrambling to help migrants who make it across the border.

“The church of Jesus has been commanded to be the light. We need to work together to help our pastors, churches and ministries by praying for them, equipping them, walking alongside them, so that the people in Laredo might come to know the hope that is only found in Jesus.”

Laredo Ministry Center Community Partnerships

The Send Relief's Laredo Ministry Center desires to work alongside churches and partners to "meet needs and change lives" by providing opportunities to reach out to the community and city through Christ-centered compassion ministries.

The Laredo Ministry Center would like to see a great spiritual awakening in Laredo, Texas, where the church commits to being the hands and feet of Jesus to a hurting community.

"I dream of a spur of leaders coming out of our pews that adopt a kingdom-size mentality and that they become the proponents and encouragers of the nations to do likewise," Osvaldo said. "This ministry center can help receive and restore the lost and point them to the source of life, only found in Jesus.

History of the Laredo Ministry Center

The Send Relief Laredo Ministry Center is the result of the answered prayer of local pastors and fervent believers who prayed with heavy hearts that God would provide an awakening in Laredo.

The pastors prayed for unity and revival opportunities. They wanted to get involved in ministering to their churches and communities. Their desire was for the Holy Spirit to guide them to be salt and light to a hurting world.

Churches had also prayed for those working and serving on the Texas-Mexico border and for the influx of refugees. Many churches had expressed the desire to partner with other local churches and ministries to bring holistic restoration and share the love of Christ with the refugees crossing the border.

As a result of conversations and prayer, leaders with the Texas Baptists River Ministry and Send Relief formed a partnership. The leaders of this partnership felt led to meet the needs of the churches and communities of Laredo with the purpose of changing lives through Christ-centered compassion ministries and to build and contextualize this new ministry center.

“When we work together, the name of Christ is glorified, creating a sense of revival. When the church awakens, many come to Christ.”
— Osvaldo Lerma

Vision

The vision of the Laredo Ministry Center is to work alongside churches and partners to “meet needs and change lives” by providing opportunities to reach out to the community and city through compassion ministries.

The Center started conversations with churches to develop more opportunities to impact their community and to witness the excitement and willingness to participate. The center hopes to make the most of every opportunity to encourage pastors and churches to unite in a citywide evangelism effort.
